The Film Location Tour

This one day tour takes you on a magical movie tour of the Cotswolds. When you see the locations, you will understand why they were carefully chosen as part of a film set. It's like being taken back in time where unspoilt villages or period houses transport you to a world of English history and those that shaped it.

- Castle Combe – War Horse
- Lacock – Downton Abbey, Pride and Prejudice, Harry Potter
- Chavenage House – Poldark
- Chastleton House – Wolf Hall

Cost £350 for up to 4 guests
For 5 to 8 guests add £150

Castle Combe

Castle Combe is one of the most beautiful villages of the South Cotswolds. Designated a conservation area, it feels like you are stepping back in time when you enter the village. In 2011 it was the set of the home of Joey, a bay thoroughbred horse raised by British teenager as he is bought by the British Army, leading him to encounter numerous individuals and owners throughout Europe, all the while experiencing the tragedies of the war happening around him.

- War Horse: That's Castle Combe in the background
- Look for Macs "Honesty Cake Stall"
- The Manor House Hotel for its wood-panelled interiors-

Lacock

The village, which dates from the 13th century and has many lime-washed half-timbered and stone houses, was used as a location in the TV and film productions of Pride and Prejudice, Moll Flanders and Emma. The Abbey also featured in the recent Harry Potter films.

- A scene from Pride and Prejudice along the newly resurfaced High Street!

Chavenage House

Chavenage House is a wonderful Elizabethan house of mellow Cotswold stone which is a family home as well as often being used as a location for TV & film productions. Famous stars to have graced the house include Oscar winning Eddie Redmayne, Jamie Doran, the late Warren Clarke as well as Aidan Turner.

The BBC's remake of 'Poldark' the romantic saga set in 18th century Cornwall is based on the novels on Winston Graham

- Aiden Turner: The star of Poldark standing outside the entrance gates to Chavenage House.

Chastleton House

A rare gem of a Jacobean country house, Chastleton House was built between 1607 and 1612 by a prosperous wool merchant as an impressive statement of wealth and power. Owned by the same increasingly impoverished family until 1991, the house remained essentially unchanged for nearly 400 years as the interiors and contents gradually succumbed to the ravages of time. Chastleton House was used as a film location in the recent BBC TV series of Wolf Hall.

- It took over 500 candles per day to light every room in the house in winter. That's a lot of work for someone to light them and blow them out every night!
- The candle-maker was making some money too!!
